FORD PAYS HIGHER WAGES TO MEN

Gets Better Work on His Railroad Which Makes Money

GIVES FIRST, DEMANDS NEXT

Employees Loyal Even Tho Rules Are Strict

The Lima News sent John W. Raper and Bob Dorman to tell with pen and camera how Henry Ford is making money on his railroad, while satisfying the public and his employees. This is the third illustrated article.

BY JOHN W. RAPER
TODAY ON HENRY FORD'S RAILROAD—One of the first things that Henry Ford did after taking over the Toledo, Toledo & Ironton Railroad was to raise wages. He established an eight-hour work day, abolished Sunday work, limited work to 208 hours a month and fixed a minimum wage of $6 a day.

At the same time he did a lot of things that were revolutionary in railroading. Ford believed there were many employees of the company who were engaged in useless work and that most of those who were engaged in useful work were loafing on the job. The ax was swung right and left. Eight high-salaried general officers were discharged and as the men on the line began to speed up the forces in all departments were reduced.

RULE FOR ENGINEERS

Under the new scale, pay of engineers and conductors was $375 for 208 hours a month. He put into effect a new rule for engineers. "An engineer," argued Ford, "is an engineer. There shouldn't be such things as a 'passenger engineer,' a 'freight engineer' and 'yard engineer.' One is just as important to a railroad as the other and worth as much money. Furthermore, there is no reason an engineer should be kept at one kind of work all the time. He should be able to do all kinds of work to be of greatest value. A man who does nothing but run a yard engine isn't able to haul a train over the road in an efficient manner."

BAN ON TOBACCO

So rules were put into effect to conform with that idea. A rule against the use of tobacco in working hours was issued. "A man can't smoke and do his best work at the same time," said Ford.

I am suspicious about how scrupulously that rule is obeyed but I must admit that at the time I saw several hundred men in their working hours, I saw only one man smoking and he said somewhat apologetically, "I can't break it very often. I steal a few puffs now and then."

I talked with a freight brakeman about the rule.

"You bet I don't smoke on duty," he said.

NO TEMPTATION
"But there are times when you are sitting in the caboose, with absolutely nothing to do, and smoking couldn't interfere with work," I said. "Don't you think that rule takes away your personal rights?"

"Say," he said, "I get $275 a month, 208 hours to the month, on this railroad. I can make several hundred dollars more a year on Henry Ford's road than on any other in the United States. Why should I risk my job by breaking rules? To hell with the rights."

Speaking of this rule, Superintendent Kinney said he obeyed it. "It's a rule for everybody, officials and laborers," he said, "and I obey it. I do my smoking when I'm off duty."

ACCIDENTS NO PASSES

Another Ford rule new to railroads is that nobody on the D. T. & I. shall accept passes from other railroads. The old-fashioned railroad man who carried a thick bunch of annuals over big lines from Maine to California, has disappeared. "There ain't no such animal" on Ford's road. "The annual pass over big railroads is a courtesy given a small road like ours is unable to reciprocate," said Ford. "We shall continue to give annuals to officials of other roads but D. T. & I. employees will return theirs."

Now, when business compels an employee to travel on another road, he pays his fare and turns in a bill to the D. T. & I., which reimburses him.

Tomorrow The Lima News will tell about the spirit of the men on Ford's railway.

DAY OF PRAYER IS SET ASIDE BY GOVERNOR DAVIS

COLUMBUS — In a proclamation issued today, Governor Davis designated Sunday, November 6, for the observance by all religious congregations in Ohio by sermon and prayer as "The Commemorative Day for the Realization by the International Conference on Limitation of Armament of its Purpose of Paving the Way Toward Permanent World Peace."

The proclamation also asks that on November 11 all churches in the state be kept open for prayer and where possible union services be held in memory of the soldier dead and of Armistice Day. The proclamation declares that the interest of the United States in the armament conference is the establishment of conditions that will permanently assure the peace of the world.

WIN IN LOVE LOTTERY!

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE MCKEAN, AS THEY WENT MASKED TO GET THEIR MARRIAGE LICENSE, AND AS THEY LOOKED WHEN FIRST REVEALED TO EACH OTHER.

LOS ANGELES — (By NEA Service) — The happiest couple in California is Mr. and Mrs. George McKean, who won out in love's oddest lottery.

She was working in a mail-order house four years ago.

He ordered handkerchiefs.

She put a note in the box, asking him to write.

He did. Courtship by mail. Engagement.

They met for the first time when applying for their marriage license.

But, by pre-arrangement, they were masked.

They didn't unmask till one minute before the marriage—which was performed publicly before 5000 persons in a dance pavilion.

"She was the girl of my dream," said McKean afterward.

"He looked a little older than I thought he would," said the bride.

But he had just the kindly face I had expected.

"Anyhow," they agreed, "love's a lottery always—and we're each satisfied with what we've drawn."

CHILDREN LIVING LIKE BEASTS

Flee to the Woods From Cities in Russia

RIGA — (By Associated Press) — Children are living in the woods and fields like young animals in some parts of the famine district of Saratov, says an official wireless dispatch from Moscow. They are little waifs who have fled from famine-stricken cities and villages, and subsist on roots and grass. When adults approach they flee, showing every evidence of fear.

Overcrowding of children's homes has been carried so far in some districts that many institutions are sheltering four times as many children as they have accommodation for. In these places children take turns in occupying such beds as are available, one small famine victim crawling into a bed the moment another child vacates it.

"Entire families are jumping in to rivers and cases are reported of parents strangling their children rather than see them die of starvation," says the dispatch, which also gives the first report of disorderly migration.

"Over the roads in the Irbit district is moving a band of disorderly refugees from starving Volga."

GIVEN LIFE TERM

Wrecker of Grand Trunk Train is Sentenced

LAFER, Mich. — (By Associated Press) — Henry W. Gates, 59, of Huntington, Indiana, who confessed Monday that he wrecked a fast Grand Trunk train near here last Friday night, pleaded guilty in circuit court here today and was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Michigan penitentiary at Jackson. Gates admitted he loosened a rail, causing the train to plunge into a ditch. Three persons were injured and scores of others endangered. He also admitted to officers, the latter state, that he had derailed trains at Muncie, Ind., and Dearborn, Mich., within the last year and had attempted to wreck a train at Montrose, Mich.

Gates attributed his desire to wreck trains to the result of a sunstroke suffered several years ago. He was arrested the day following the wreck here, after being seen in the vicinity of the derailment.

WALKOUT CLOSES INDIANA MINES

Practically the Entire Field is Shut Down

SPREADING TO OTHER ZONES

Workers Quit as Check-off System is Discontinued

INDIANAPOLIS — Practically every mine (300 all told) in the Indiana coal field was idle today as the result of a strike of union miners in protest against the injunction issued here Monday by Federal Judge Anderson, prohibiting use of the "check-off" system of collecting union dues and assessments. Only a few shafts were reported in operation and union employees of these are expected to walk out as soon as the "check-off" is discontinued by the operators.

A meeting of the Indiana Bituminous Coal Operators' association will be held at Terre Haute, tonight at which members have announced the course of action to be taken by the operators would be outlined. Officers of the association have declared, however, the injunction would be obeyed and notices of discontinuance of the check-off system have already been prepared for posting at the mines.

OTHER STATES AFFECTED

Miners from only a few localities of other districts were reported as having followed the example of the Indiana miners in striking, but officials at headquarters of the union here expect the walkout will become general as soon as the order discontinuing the "check-off" system is put into effect. This may not occur for several days in some of the districts, it was pointed out, as there is expected to be some delay before the provisions of the injunction are put into actual operation.

Counsel for both the union and the operators were busy today in the preparation of their appeal of the injunction to the circuit court of appeals at Chicago and are expected to make formal application for the appeal before Judge Anderson either today or tomorrow. Counsel said the application was only a perfunctory proceeding.

MEET AT COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS — (By United Press) — Separate meetings of coal operators and union leaders here today will decide whether there will be a general strike in Ohio and Panhandle mining district.

Strong indications were given by Lee Hall, district president of the United Mine Workers of America, that decision to abandon the check-off system on the part of the operators, would mean a general walkout.

OPERATORS TO ACT

CHICAGO — (By United Press) — Coal operators of Illinois will meet here on November 10, to decide whether or not they will obey Judge A. B. Anderson's injunction abolishing the check off system. Only about 400 miners have walked out in Illinois fields since the injunction was issued. They were expected to return to work today as a result of the telegram from Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois branch of the miners' union.

MINERS IN SESSION

PITTSBURGH — (By United Press) — Officials of District Number 5, United Mine Workers of America, went into session here today to prevent a walkout of over 40,000 coal miners in western Pennsylvania. The strike was threatened following action by the Pittsburgh Coal Producers' Association, discontinuing the practice of deducting dues and other union charges from coal miners' wages.

VIOLENCE BREAKS IN STRIKE

Several Hurt at Cleveland, Resulting from Milk Walkout

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press) — Common Pleas Judge Maurice Bernon this morning granted a temporary injunction restraining striking milk wagon drivers from interfering in any way with the delivery of milk here, after several outbreaks of violence had marked the start of the second day of the strike of 800 milk wagon drivers.

The most serious disorder occurred in the downtown section when a man threw a baseball bat thru the windshield of a Telling-Belle Vernon company milk truck that was distributing milk for babies. The crashing glass was thrown into the face of the truck driver. His throat was slashed, scalp and nose and partially blinded by flying splinters. He lost control of the truck which plowed into a standing automobile at the curb and then smashed into the corner of a building. The impact of the crash hurled the driver from his seat to the sidewalk. His legs were broken.

Physicians from the Lake division of the Red Cross saved his life by giving first aid. A man, his wife and baby were in the smaller machine were slightly injured.

'FIGHTING PARSON' ELECTED AMERICAN LEGION CHAPLAIN

TOPPKA, Kans. — The Rev. Earl Blackman, elected national chaplain of the American Legion today, is known as the "Fighting Parson" because of his many calls to officiate in boxing bouts both with the overseas forces and since his return to Kansas, where he has been a minister in the Christian church—Disciples of Christ—for the last ten years. He is now preaching at Chautauque.

WATSON SUBMITS HANGING PROOF

Backs up Charges of Executions in France

READS LETTERS, TELEGRAMS

Bringing Witness to Testify in Person, He Says

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Letters and telegrams from persons offering to submit proof of charges that American soldiers overseas were hanged without trial were presented in the senate today by Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia, whose presentation of the original charges in the senate several days ago resulted in appointment of a special committee of investigation.

One of the telegrams, Senator Watson said, was from a former major in the army and said he could "assist in substantiating the charges." Another, from a resident of Philadelphia, offered to give two photographs similar to that presented recently by Senator Watson as showing a gallows.

The Philadelphia, whose name was not made public by the Georgia senator, said he saw hanging on the Meuse, the body of a negro in uniform, and could supply "positive proof of the hanging." The correspondent did not say whether the hanging was after a court-martial or not.

SENATORS CLASH

In presenting his documents, Senator Watson, with much show of feeling, clashed with several senators and was reminded by Vice-President Coolidge that he should "proceed in order and observe senate rules." The vice-president intervened when Senator Watson referred to Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, directly without use of the usual term "the senator from New Hampshire."

Senator Watson asked for insertion of the congressional record of photographs of alleged hangings in the American expeditionary forces published in a New Jersey newspaper and Senator Moses, chairman of the printing committee, started to say that printing rules did not permit publication of photographs when he was cut off by Mr. Watson who declared the objection was "cowardly."

The Georgia senator again attacked Senator Wadsworth, Republican, New York, who first called "cowardly" the mention to Senator Watson's charges.

"It is only a few hours," said Mr. Watson, "since I was put on the rack, in a most brutal, supercilious manner by the ex-associate of William Barnes, a crook."

WITNESS ENROUTE

Mr. Watson said that a former Georgia soldier was enroute here to furnish proof of the hanging charges and that he might appoint him as his secretary so that he might stand by the senator's side in the chamber to aid in proof.

Senator Watson then had senate clerks read a large number of letters, telegrams and newspaper clippings into the record, all reporting alleged crimes to, or mistreatment of, "soldiers."

The Georgia senator referred to this data as "evidence of confirmation." "I would be glad to disbelieve these charges," said Mr. Watson. "If proof is submitted that they are not true, I would be glad to know they are not true."

He then asked "I will show that officers had new shot with no trial whatever. I can show and will show that officers told court-martial what to do in order that the court-martial might keep from being shot themselves."

'GAMEST' SOLDIER IN KANSAS

John Allen And The Neck Brace He Always Will Have To Wear.

ATCHISON, Kan. — The "gamest soldier in Kansas."

That's what folks have dubbed John Allen. He is going to represent his state at the ceremonies over the burial of an unknown Yankee soldier at Arlington cemetery on Armistice Day.

Allen was a dispatch runner at the Cantigny headquarters of Theodore Roosevelt, then a major. In the first offensive action of American troops he was hit by a shell.

In the hospital it was found that the shell had torn away some of his spinal column at the neck. When he left the hospital a steel brace held his head in place. And as long as Allen lives he will have to wear the brace.

Allen is state historian of the Kansas branch of the American Legion.

DAN R. HANNA IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Dies at His Home in Croton-on-Hudson

NEW YORK. — (By Associated Press) — Dan R. Hanna, son of the late Senator Marcus A. Hanna and proprietor of the Cleveland News, died at his home at Croton-on-Hudson last night, according to word received by friends here today.

HOLDINGS IN CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND. — (By Associated Press) — Dan R. Hanna, publisher of the Cleveland News and Cleveland Sunday Leader, and one of Cleveland's foremost business men, died of heart failure at his home, The Croft, Ossining, N. Y., early today, according to advices received here.

In addition to his newspaper interests, Mr. Hanna was heavily interested in real estate, owning two of Cleveland's largest office buildings and for many years was a leading figure in the iron ore, coal and lake shipping industry.

Mr. Hanna was well known in politics as a strong supporter of the late President Theodore Roosevelt. A son of the late United States Senator Marcus A. Hanna, he was born December 26, 1866, in Cleveland, and was survived by his mother, Mrs. Marcus A. Hanna of Washington; by two sisters, Mrs. Medill McCormick of Chicago and Mrs. Harry A. Parsons, of Cleveland, and by eight children.

The children are Mark A. Hanna and Carl H. Hanna of Watertown, N. Y.; Dan R. Hanna, Jr., of Cleveland; and Misses Elizabeth, Natalie, Ruth, Charlotte and Mary Hanna. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

5 KILLED IN RIOT

Arab and Jewish Factions Clash in Jerusalem

JERUSALEM — (By Associated Press) — Five persons were killed and thirteen others were wounded in disorders here today which included the throwing of a bomb. The trouble, the police report, originated in an attempted attack by Arab rioters on the Jewish quarter.

Of the killed four were Jews and one an Arab.

There were a few cases of knifing and shots were exchanged between the factions.

The police frustrated an Arab attack. Later while troops patrolled the city, the governor, with the officer commanding the troops and the principal Moslem notables walked thru the streets and restored order.

TRAPPED BY BLAZE IN TOLEDO HOME

Family's Store and Apartment Are Wiped Out

FATHER, 4 YOUTHS ESCAPE

Building Enveloped in Flames While Occupants Sleep

TOLEDO — (By Associated Press) — A mother and four children, three girls and a boy, were burned to death when fire destroyed the fruit store and apartment of Wolf Greenburg, at Indiana-ave and Ewing-st., shortly after six o'clock this morning.

The dead are:

Mrs. Greenburg, the mother; Eva, 15, Anna, 13, Leah, 9, and David 6.

Those who escaped are the father, three sons, Nathan, 20, Isadore, 12, Charles, 17, and one daughter, Sarah 10.

AROUSED BY SMOKE

The fire was discovered when Isadore was aroused by dense smoke in his room. He was sleeping in a room with his sister Sarah whom he carried to safety.

Isadore then awakened his father and two brothers but the flames had gained such headway that it was impossible to enter the room on the second floor of the building, in which the mother and the other children were sleeping.

When firemen invaded the second floor apartment they found Mrs. Greenburg and two children burned to death in bed and two other children dead in chairs.

FIRE TAKES 37 LIVES

COLUMBUS — (By United Press) — "October was the worst month in three years in the number of deaths and injuries from fires," State Fire Marshal Dykeman said today.

"Thirty-seven persons were killed by fire in Ohio during October, while 43 were injured, according to Dykeman."

"Three deaths of October uncovered two glaring faults," Dykeman said.

"The first and one of the most dangerous was the leaving of children alone in the house. The second was the folly of starting fires with coal oil."

THIEVES ROB TWO GROCERIES

Walters Bros. and W. E. Kelly Stores Entered

Two reports of grocery robberies in widely separated localities in the city reached the police department Thursday. Both robberies were committed Wednesday night.

Thieves, believed to be boys, broke into Walters Brothers' grocery at the corner of E. Vine-st and St. Johns-ave and stole $4.50 in cash and carried away large quantities of groceries, candy, tobacco, cigars and cookies. The money consisted of pennies and other small change.

The total loss will approximate $50, the owners, Leon P. and Harry F. Walters, said. Suspicion rests on several crowds of young boys in the vicinity, who prowled about after night.

Walters brothers recently purchased the grocery. They formerly were in business at 899 W. Wayne-st.

The robbery was discovered Thursday morning when the owners, arriving at their store of business, found a window had been broken in the front of the store.

They telephoned police and Detectives Willis Kipker and Joseph Reed were sent out.

FOOD IN TROUBLE
Thieves in quest of food bored a hole in the front door of W. E. Kelly's grocery, at Jackson and McKibben-sts., some time Wednesday night. A wire was inserted and the lock was sprung.

Kelly found the door open Thursday morning. He was unable to state whether anything was taken or not. There was no money in the store.

Police who investigated declared that in their opinion someone entered the store helped themselves to sufficient food to make a square meal and departed.

The robberies Wednesday night make up a list of three groceries that have been burglarized in less than one week. The store of Sam Plummer, 293 S. Pine-st., was broken into and robbed of more than $150 worth of food sometime after midnight Saturday.

PERU IS SHAKEN BY FOUR EARTH TREMORS

LIMA, Peru — Four sharp earthquake shocks were felt in this city yesterday morning.

The secretary of the Lima Geographical Society declared that the center of the disturbances was about 200 miles southeast of here, near Ica. Dispatches from that city received later in the day said the residents were greatly alarmed by the tremors, and had taken refuge in the parks. Advices relative to casualties in the vicinity of Ica have not been received and belief was expressed here last night that the center of the shock was in an unpopulated area.

"Y. W." FUND DRIVE GETS BIG BOOST

More Than One-Third of the Desired Total Attained

OFFER OF $5000 ON NEW HOME

Thursday's Campaign Adds $3,293.95 to Total

FIGURES IN FINANCE WEEK DRIVE
Goal Set $15,000.00
Thursday $3,293.95
Balance $9,216.75

With all teams going strong and with residents of Lima awakened to the fact that there is a Y. W. C. A. Finance Week drive on for $15,000 to maintain the institution for another year, team captains reported Thursday noon that $3,293.95 had been obtained to swell the fund.

Business and commercial girls at a meeting in the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday night contributed $350 to the cause. An anonymous gift of $50 was received. The total to date is $5,753.25.

$5,000 OFFER FOR NEW HOME
William Hoover, one of the initial donors, has announced he will give $5,000 toward erection of a new Y. W. C. A. home in Lima when the organization is ready to proceed with plans. Officers of the organization intimated Thursday that a building program would not be considered for another year at least.

Rev. W. L. Coic was the speaker at the noon luncheon Thursday. He urged further progress in Y. W. C. A. efforts, complimented the campaign workers for the splendid spirit shown in the present drive and stated his belief a quota would be reached during the week.

Thru systematic plans of making the canvass the 10 teams in the field are not crossing one another. Each group of workers has been assigned a list of homes from which they work. When the lists are exhausted and if the $25,000 is not raised, a general intensive downtown canvass will be made. It was intimated Thursday. Leaders believe such action will not be necessary to fill the quota.

LIMA HAS ITS OWN WESTONS IN THE GREAT WALKING GAME

Will S. Simpson, Mail Carrier, Walks Distance Equal to Six Times Around the Earth

Has Been in Service 31 Years, Continuously—Cautell McGee Also Space Annihilator

Champion pedestrians? Humpf! Edward Payson Weston, America's acknowledged premier of the art of walking, has nothing on Lima's own Will S. Simpson, 1324 State-st veteran city mail carrier who in 31 years has walked a distance of 142,848 miles—or nearly equal to the distance six times around the earth!

Impossible? Not at all. Carrier Simpson was appointed a member of the postoffice department on April 1, 1891, 31 years ago. He has been on the job steady ever since. Here's how he walked the 142,848 miles right in Lima, while other persons have traveled in luxury several times around the globe—and yet have failed to cover the distance Simpson has with his two feet.

Carrier Simpson has Route No. 5 in the southwestern section of the city. He figures he walks an average of 16 miles a day on the two miles of his route, collecting mail. Six days a week he goes over the route. Four weeks each month, with only an occasional holiday sprinkled in between. Twelve months a year, for 31 long years has the veteran Simpson trod the straight and narrow paths of this city mail route. Witness the verification of the distance his feet have carried him during that time:

WALKS 16 MILES A DAY
At 16 miles a day, 24 days a month, 12 months a year gives a total of 4,608 miles a year. 47 years it out. And—31 times 4,608 gives a grand total of 142,848. That's right; absolutely correct.

All hail the walking prowess of the aforesaid Edward Payson Weston, New Jersey's walking marvel, but here's handing the palm to Will S. Simpson, Lima, who in the course of his duties has walked more miles than the average railroad engineer pilots a locomotive during the course of his career.

Carrier McGee, 895 W. Spring-st, is the next oldest mail carrier, in years of service. He has walked also, many thousands of miles in the performance of his duties.

WARE THE LAW! SEASON FOR 'POSSUM NOT OPEN

Open season for opossum does not come until November 15, according to Charles E. Hanes, deputy state game warden, Sandusky. Hunters should beware of killing this animal until the season begins, Hanes says.

License blanks secured by hunters when they take out permits indicate the season began November 1. Bank of rules given out with the license show the season does not open until November 15. It continues until February 1.

The licenses were printed before the legislature changed the law. Hunters are urged not to stick too closely to the rules printed on the back of the licenses.

Hunters are also required to carry their license with them, at all times when hunting, and if required to present it, must do so to come within the law, game wardens say.

MRS. HIRAM HEDGES OBSEQUES, FRIDAY
Funeral services for Mrs. Laura Hedges, 52, wife of Hiram Hedges, residing on the Sandusky-st. Jackson-st, east of the city, will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at Liberty Chapel. Rev. Chiles will officiate. Interment will be in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Hedges died Wednesday. Besides the husband, she is survived by two sons, Owen and Leonard, five grand-children, a sister, Mrs. Mary Ransbottom, and a brother, John Walker.

DENIES DRIVING CAR WHILE INTOXICATED
C. S. Sullitt, 43, who gave his occupation as farmer, was arrested for operating a motor car while intoxicated Wednesday night. The arrest was made by Captain M. F. Dawson and Police-officer Pollock on St. Johns-ave.

He was arraigned in criminal court Thursday, pleaded not guilty and will be given a hearing Saturday morning.

JACK FROST IS AGAIN ON JOB

JACK FROST played a return engagement in Lima and vicinity Thursday morning, after a prolonged absence, detained by the presence of rain and mild weather. It cannot be said in a sweeping manner that Jack's coming day by the Canadian naval department from the British oil tanker Saxophone.

NEW YORK (By Associated Press)—A large vessel, the identity of which is unknown, is on fire four hundred miles southeast of Halifax, according to a wireless received today by the Canadian naval department from the British oil tanker Saxophone.

A broadside radio message to all vessels within a radius of several hundred miles of where the ship was reported, seeking information as to the identity of the craft or of possible rescue of crew, was sent out by the naval communications service.

LEGION MEN TO MEET FRIDAY IN BONUS DRIVE

Members of the American Legion Post in Lima and Allen-co will meet at 7:30 Friday night in the Legion hall, to discuss today of large unidentified vessel off the Halifax coast, as reported to the Canadian naval department at Halifax by the tanker Saxophone.

WHITLEY HEARING IS POSTPONED

Wife Seeks Injunction—Court Cuts Allowance

Roland B. Whitley, 126 N. McDonell-st, succeeded in having the support money he is to pay for his young daughter reduced from $10 to $5 a week, following a hearing in common pleas court Thursday.

Whitley, in court, said he was not employed, save to play at dances at present and could not make the payment. Judge Becker reduced the amount to $5 a week.

Hearing on a restraining injunction, to prevent Whitley from interfering with the comfort and life of his wife, who is now in Greenville, was heard. Mrs. Whitley had signed an affidavit, saying that her husband followed her to Greenville and threatened her life, annoying her at her place of business and at her work. She is employed there by the telephone company and is boarding with an aunt, she says.

Mrs. Whitley said her husband carried a large bottle of carbolic acid which he had declared he would use upon her, if she did not comply with his wishes.

Whitley, on the witness stand, testified to purchase of carbolic acid several times during the past several weeks ago, but said he did so at the request of his wife.

Whitley acknowledged taking letters from Mrs. Whitley's grandmother's home, which had been written to his wife in Greenville by her attorneys here and by her mother, Mrs. John Hooker, Lima.

Judge F. C. Becker held the matter of the restraining order open until such time as Mrs. Whitley is able to come to Lima to testify in her own behalf.

Mrs. Whitley, in her suit, charged that her husband neglected her and their two-year-old daughter and spent his money associating with other women.

MEAT DEALER IS FINED; ANOTHER TO FIGHT CASE

H. C. Potter, meat dealer, 127 E. Market-st, pleaded not guilty when arraigned in the court of W. H. Guyton, justice of the peace, Thursday, on the charge of selling adulterated hamburger. Trial was set for November 10.

L. Lotter, against whom two affidavits were filed, one charging selling adulterated hamburger and the other adulterated sausage, was fined $25 on each charge when he pleaded guilty.

At the request of L. W. Stewart, inspector of the state department of agriculture, fine on the one charge was suspended by the court.

Affidavits in the three cases were filed by Stewart.

ALLEGED BAD CHECK NETS WOMAN $4.85

A strange woman, believed to be one of a number of check artists who flooded Lima with spurious paper during September, obtained $4.85 in cash and paper products at the Allen Paper company, the police were informed Thursday. The woman represented herself as Gladys McDermott, of Eldon.

The check, which had been drawn on the Lima Trust company, was placed in their hands for investigation. The woman who passed the check in exchange for paper plates, paper napkins, was described to the police as being about 27, dark complexion and neatly but not expensively attired. She told the manager that she was buying the supplies for a picnic.

COUPLE DIVORCED

Mrs. Johnson Charged Husband Gambled Home Away

Mrs. Ruth May Johnson was granted a divorce from Walter L. Johnson, Thursday. The case, which was begun Wednesday afternoon, was concluded Thursday morning.

Mrs. Johnson was given custody of their two children, Maiba S. and John Holland, Jr., 2. Johnson may have the children for one month of vacation time, the court ruled.

Mrs. Johnson was given their household goods and $300 alimony, to be paid at the rate of $10 a month. Johnson must pay $5 a week for support of the two children. He was allowed to retain an automobile in his possession, but will be obliged to pay all court costs of the case.

Mrs. Johnson charged that her husband spent his money in gambling and testified they were forced to sell their home, because he squandered his money, instead of paying for it. She named a certain school teacher with whom he worked as the woman who caused her trouble and of whom Johnson continually sues, praesides to her.

Johnson has been serving as a lightning rod salesman in Carroll-co. He testified his wife neglected his home and remained away for weeks at a time.

WATER OFF IN CITY

Lima was without available supply of water for several hours Thursday afternoon, caused by a break in the main steam line at the City waterworks pump station shortly after 1 o'clock.

All pump stations connected with the Lima waterworks plant, the city water supply was automatically shut off. No fires were reported during the period up to 3 p. m.

Engineer Kirk stated at 3:30 Thursday afternoon the break would be repaired in a few hours, if good luck prevails with the repairmen rushed to the scene.

Nobody was hurt when the steam line burst.

RATE REHEARING ASKED BY RAILROADS OF OHIO

COLUMBUS—Counsel for Ohio state railroads today petitioned the state utilities commission for a rehearing of the agricultural limestone freight rate case which resulted in an order for a reduction of approximately 28 1-2 per cent in rates.

The petition declares that the order of the commission makes rates lower than in other states and lower than in interstate commerce; that the commission has no power to reduce rates to promote agriculture or any other industry and that the decision was based on evidence concerning Illinois rates, where conditions are different.

HOW PROHIBITION CAN PROHIBIT

Rum Deluge Can Be Stopped, Investigation Shows

MANY CAN GIVE INFORMATION

Systems of Enforcing Laws Discussed by Experts

BY NEA SERVICE

FLAGRANT violation of the prohibition law, and a country flooded with liquor have been shown in preceding articles in The Lima News, based on a national investigation made by NEA Service.

What is to be done about it? The first thing that ought to be done, if the law is to be enforced, is a Congressional investigation of prohibition enforcement. Among those who could enlighten Congress are:

ANDREW W. MELLON, secretary of the treasury.

DAVID H. BLAIR, commissioner of internal revenue.

DANIEL C. ROPER, ex-commissioner of internal revenue.

WILLIAM M. WILLIAMS, ex-commissioner of internal revenue.

MILLARD F. WEST, ex-acting commissioner of internal revenue.

ROY A. HAYNES, prohibition commissioner.

JOHN F. KRAMER, ex-prohibition commissioner.

DR. R. O. MATTHEWS, chief enforcement officer.

W. C. MCCONNELL, Pennsylvania state prohibition director.

E. C. YELLOWLEY, New York state prohibition director.

HAROLD C. HART, ex-state director in New York.

RALPH W. STONE, Illinois state director.

HUBERT E. HOWARD, ex-Illinois state director.

MAY A. DALRYMPLE, ex-federal agent in Chicago.

JAMES H. SHEVLIN, ex-agent in New York.

D. J. CHAPIN, ex-agent in New York.

CHARLES R. O'CONNOR, ex-agent in New York.

COL. DANIEL L. PORTER, ex-supervising internal revenue agent.

FRANK R. HOYT, ex-internal revenue agent in Nashville.

R. E. ENRIGHT, police commissioner of New York.

C. C. FITZMORRIS, chief of police of Chicago.

JOHN A. CROGAN, internal revenue collector in Detroit.

WALLACE E. J. COLLINS, federal district attorney in Brooklyn.

LESLIE QUIGG, chief of police of Miami, Fla.

DAVID TYRE, internal revenue collector in Miami.

L. E. HOWE, Miami department of justice agent.

R. S. MILLER, commander of revenue cutter "Vidette."

E. FORREST MITCHELL, California prohibition director.

H. MCCORMACK, special federal prosecutor in San Francisco.

WILLIAM D. TURNER, federal assistant district attorney in Savannah, Ga.

LOUIS C. DEVLIN, prohibition agent at Miami.

These men know what they are or were up against in trying to enforce the prohibition law. Some of them resigned because they found themselves helpless.

This is what former Prohibition Commissioner Kramer says:

"One of the first big errors in the administration of enforcement, as I see it now, was the issuance of too many permits for the withdrawal of liquor from warehouses."

"Permits never should have been issued to wholesale liquor dealers. Last March we eliminated all permits to such dealers and the amount of whisky getting out into illicit channels was greatly reduced."

Kramer says that this action did not stop the evil. Permits are still issued for liquor and alcohol to druggists and manufacturers.

Kramer points out another handicap to enforcement—the fact that there are 377 warehouses. He suggests that all stocks of spirits be concentrated in a few warehouses.

HOWARD'S PLAN

Hubert E. Howard, former Illinois state prohibition director, recommends government ownership of all stocks of liquor and alcohol. He says:

"There always will be unlawful sale of liquor while the great warehouse stocks are in private hands. Congress should pass legislation authorizing the government to take over and pay a fair price for all liquor in existence in the United States. Then it should be re-sold at a fair price for actual medicinal purposes."

Harold C. Hart, recently resigned as New York state director, says:

"My idea of enforcement differed radically from that of both Kramer and Haynes. I think prohibition eventually will be enforced. But I didn't think their systems were workable."

U. S. ATTORNEY RESIGNS

Assistant United States District Attorney William D. Turner in Savannah, has sent in his resignation. To an NEA Service investigator he gave this reason:

"I'm quitting because too many little fellows with just hip quantities in their possession are caught, and the big chaps escape because the government hasn't got the facilities to catch them."

The sharpest tooth in the law—rarely used—is the "padlock injunction" provision. Owners of property can be penalized for liquor violations by closing the building. This was done recently in the case of a hotel in Kansas City.

Whether Anti-Saloon League officials possess the specific information necessary to nail down the influence blocking enforcement is problematical.

W. H. Anderson, New York state superintendent, on Oct. 9 made a speech in New York in which he said the league was preparing a campaign to unmask the influences hindering enforcement.

Anderson was asked by the NEA Service to make public whatever information he has. Anderson admitted he had "nothing specific—no names."

Many enforcement agents have been offered bribes. Some of them have not. Ralph W. Stone in Chicago says he has been offered bribes totaling $100,000.

Captain Howard, his predecessor, says he could have made a million dollars in graft.

A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

HOLD FAST TO HEALTH

With The Mighty Strength-Giving Power of

NUXATED IRON

HELPS MAKE RICH RED BLOOD

Nothing slips away so easily as HEALTH. Unless YOU hold fast to HEALTH by your own efforts—by keeping your blood pure, red and rich in iron—the day may come when all you can do is WISH you had acted sooner.

"For want of iron you may be old at thirty, thin at forty, poor in memory, nervous, irritable and all run down," while at 50 or 60 with plenty of iron in your blood you may still be young in feeling, full of life, your whole being brimming over with vim and energy.

But be sure the iron you take is organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and not metallic iron which people usually take. Organic iron—Nuxated Iron—like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is just a small piece of iron filings and is therefore an entirely different thing from Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron purifies the blood and builds up the system.

LABRADOR IS FED BY CANADA

Winter Supply for Starving Natives Furnished

HIT BY DISEASE, FAMINE

Captain Living Returns With Cargo of Food

OTTAWA, Ont. — (By Associated Press) — Captain Alfred Living, who came out of Labrador in the summer to appeal for food and clothing for 400 or 500 families in that bleak province, is returning to Labrador with enough food and clothes to keep the natives from death by famine this winter.

Captain Living is in charge of the Canadian government's reindeer herd and is stationed at Lobster Bay, Labrador. In emergencies, he acts as councillor and physician for the natives. He carries on his return trip a supply of first-aid remedies and simple medicines.

FAMILIES STARVING
He was forced to leave Labrador and obtain outside aid because, he said, the Indians, half-Eskimos and sprinkling of whites married to natives which constitute the population, had become utterly dependent upon outside relief.

Their difficulties began with an epidemic of influenza and pneumonia last spring, which left them in a weakened condition. This was followed by a season in which both fish and fur failed them and prices for fish dropped from $3 to $2 a barrel. The natives were unable to lay in their winter store of provisions from the outside and Captain Living found many families in a state of actual starvation.

NEEDS SUPPLIED
Captain Living when confronted with this situation hastened to Ottawa.

If Stomach is Out of Order — "Dipepsin"

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Dipepsin and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief. This harmless antacid helps digest anything you eat and overcomes sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach in five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Get from your druggist a sixty-cent case of Pape's Dipepsin. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no gas or heartburn, no fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, no nausea, headache or intestinal griping. Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as new, that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this food fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or indigestion. —adv.

laws and laid the facts before Premier Taschereau who placed at his disposal such quantities of flour, lard, molasses and tea as will keep the natives alive until spring. In addition the federal government provided a steamer to carry the supplies back to the Labrador coast.

Bishop Williamson, of Quebec, promoted an appeal for clothes and, as a result, Captain Living is carrying back a large supply for men, women and children.

For many weeks after his arrival he will be occupied in distributing these supplies by means of dogs' sleds.

One of the odd customs of the natives, described by Captain Living, deals with what happens to a man who becomes insane. Most of the natives wear a silver cross about their necks and, when one becomes crazed, it has been in the past the custom of the others to bind him, melt his cross into a silver bullet and shoot him. Captain Living says, however, that authorities have stamped out this practice.

DEATH NEAR ST. MARYS
ST. MARYS — Francis Johns, 71, clerk of Noble's, residing near here, died Tuesday, from Bright's disease. Survived by his widow and several children. Funeral services will be held Friday.

ST. MARYS MAN IS SENTENCED

Dan Donley Sent Up for Robbing Hardware Store

WAPAKONETA — (Special) — Dan Donley, St. Marys, plead guilty to a charge of burglary and was sentenced in common pleas court to the Mansfield reformatory where he will join Lloyd Merritt, who also plead guilty of the indictment charging him with breaking into the Henry Koepfer hardware store, St. Marys.

In an address delivered at a community product show in New Hampshire, C. A. Dyer, secretary of the Home Protective league, declared the present period of depression may continue ten years, because many employers have placed employees on blacklists and will not hire them under any conditions.

Anglatze-co hens will hereafter work in double shifts. Electric lighting as a means of increasing egg yield has been introduced by many farmers and will be made a part of an extensive egg campaign the ensuing year.

A plea of not guilty was entered by George Baumer, Minister, when arraigned before Justice Herrmann on a charge of failure to send a child to school. He will stand trial Saturday.

Progress on a sewer outlet extension in the Anglatze river here is hindered because of workmen's tools tapping numerous springs, which rise and prevent progress.

Representatives of the villages of Minister and New Bremen and E. J. Arnold, owner of the village's gas plants, failed to agree on the third member of a board to appraise gas properties and the matter was put up to Judge Layton, who will appoint him by Saturday.

BODIES CREMATED

ST. MARYS — The bodies of Mrs. Minnie Fritz, Mrs. Wilhelmina Limbacher, Sr., and Mrs. Dorothea Noble, late of this city, were taken to Cincinnati, where they were cremated Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Limbacher went to Cincinnati to witness the rites.

To Lima Advertisers—

Service is the paramount aim of The Lima News; service to our subscribers, service to our advertisers.

To give better service to our subscribers it is necessary, with the coming of shorter days and bad weather, that the paper be delivered as early as possible each evening.

(This in itself will result in better service and greater returns for the advertisers. This is particularly true of our Friday issue. Late delivery on this night decreases the salespower of YOUR advertising. Late delivery recently has been caused by late copy on the part of some advertisers.)

We feel confident that each advertiser will realize we are striving for better service to them and to the subscriber, in announcing the following rule, effective at once:

Advertising Copy for Friday Evening's News Will Not Be Accepted Later Than Thursday Night, 6 O'clock

(Grocery Advertising Will be Accepted Up to 10 a. m. Friday)

By enforcing this rule we will be able to carry your message into many thousand homes on Friday that otherwise would not see your advertisement until Saturday—too late to be effective for Saturday business.

Each advertiser is paying to reach our entire circulation and The News intends that each shall receive full value. Therefore, the above rule is positive. Orders given Thursday to take copy from Friday morning's paper for publication Friday night will not constitute early copy and will not be accepted.

An extra force of compositors will be employed on Wednesday and Thursday nights. Early proofs will be furnished Thursday if copy is given us on Wednesday. This extra force will also be on duty Friday night to set up Sunday advertising.

Our exception on grocery copy only is because of the rapid changes in quotations on grocers' lines, making it necessary for them to have Friday's prices to them before quoting Saturday's sale prices.

"A-J" TREATY IS REAL SNAG

British-Jap Pact Perils Success of Arms Conference

WAS SIGNED 19 YEARS AGO

Effect Has Been to Close Open Door to China

(BY WM. PHILIP SIMMS)
(Written Expressly for The Lima News)

WASHINGTON—The arms limitation conference, now little more than 10 days off, may capsize when it reaches the snag of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, the worn-out, but still valid, treaty between Great Britain and Japan.

Notwithstanding a studied attitude of indifference, and public utterances to the contrary, official Washington regards the pact a vague, but none the less real, menace both to China and the United States.

The inside circle of officialdom both distrusts it and fears it, for under it an empire which it was pledged to protect, has gobbled up, while another country, twice the size of America, and four times the population, came within an arm's reach of becoming that signatory's vassal.

SIGNED SECRETLY

First broached in secret in 1901 the "A-J" pact was secretly signed Jan. 30, 1902.

It stated the status quo in the Far East, the territorial integrity of China and Korea would be maintained and the open door preserved.

Before three years had passed, every one of these pledges had been violated. Korea became a Japanese dependency, China's integrity had been stepped on Japan's hold on Manchuria had tightened, and the open door hanged shut.

So completely had the status quo been altered that it became necessary to change the wording of, and renew the Alliance, originally intended to run 10 years.

PARAMOUNT RIGHTS

The new version of the treaty still guaranteed to preserve the status quo and maintain the open door, but Japan's paramount rights in Korea were recognized—in place of that country's independence.

In 1910 Japan annexed Korea. By 1911, four years before the date of expiration of the renewed pact, the status quo had again become so badly battered that another re-writing had become necessary to make it conform to the new situation.

JAPAN'S 21 DEMANDS

In 1915 Japan secretly made her famous "21 demands" on China, and China yielded to the stupendous pressure, accompanied by threats, made upon her at that time, she would have become a Japanese protectorate.

Later in the same year, an ultimatum, menacing China with a drubbing unless she gave in to Japan's modified version of the 21 demands, was successfully put over.

By this process Japan not only shut the door to China but nailed it shut.

Today, Japan, with Great Britain's support, claims monopoly of wireless communications in China—the British Marconi Company and the

MAY JAM ARMS MEET

WASHINGTON—(By NEA Service)—The Anglo-Japanese alliance of 1911 is expected to be one of the monkey wrenches in the machinery of the conference on limitation of armaments. China will insist that the matter be brought up.

The alliance provides for (1) Maintenance of the territorial integrity of China, (2) Consolidation and maintenance of general peace in eastern Asia and India and (3) Maintenance of the territorial rights of Japan and Great Britain in these regions.

Each nation is bound to render military and other aid to the other in case eastern holdings are menaced. Thus Japan would help check an Indian rebellion or British troops would help squelch a Korean uprising.

The treaty also binds the nations to give one another military aid if attacked in these eastern holdings by a foreign power, although Britain later inserted a clause eliminating nations with which she had a general treaty of arbitration. United States is considered in this class, although no treaty ever has been signed.

Britain and Japan are expected to protest against a change unless granted something equally safeguarding.

Japanese Mitsui Company together opposing the Federal Wireless Company, an American concern.

Another spike in the already nailed up doors, with the "A-J" Alliance looking on.

30 SECRET LOANS

In the last four years Japan has made upward of 30 secret loans to China, tightening her grip on Peking.

Under the pact Japan has done as she liked and Britain has been but a complacent partner.

Therefore, if an understanding in the Pacific is to be reached here, a lot of explaining will be necessary to convince American delegates of the "harmlessness" of the Alliance. Indeed there is a feeling that an agreement will be out of the question unless the pact is denounced.

TEETH FOR RAIL LABOR BOARD

Administration is Being Urged to Strengthen Powers

WASHINGTON—(Special)—With the threat of a general railway strike safely out of the way, administration leaders are seeking to draft a plan that will remove forever the possibility of a similar menace.

One thing is certain the Railway Labor Board has come to stay. Further, the administration is being advised to strengthen the board by adopting this program.

ONE—Coordinate the functions of the Labor Board and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

TWO—Give the board power to enforce its decisions.

THREE—Move the board's headquarters from Chicago to Washington.

Activities of the board and the Interstate Commerce Commission should be merged. The administrative activities of the two are the first adjustments employees' wages and the second adjusts freight rates.

If the two agencies functioned as one, they say, they would be able to tell the public definitely that any cut in rail workers' wages immediately would be translated into lower freight rates. They couldn't do that during the recent dispute.

The administration hasn't made up its mind on what kind of "teeth" to give the board.

Administration leaders are moving warily to avoid arousing the distrust of organized labor.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is girding for a battle, if any attempt is made to foist "compulsory arbitration" on the labor unions.

Leavening Strength Tells the Story

The price you pay for baking powder doesn't determine the results you will have on bake day—it's the leavening strength that counts.

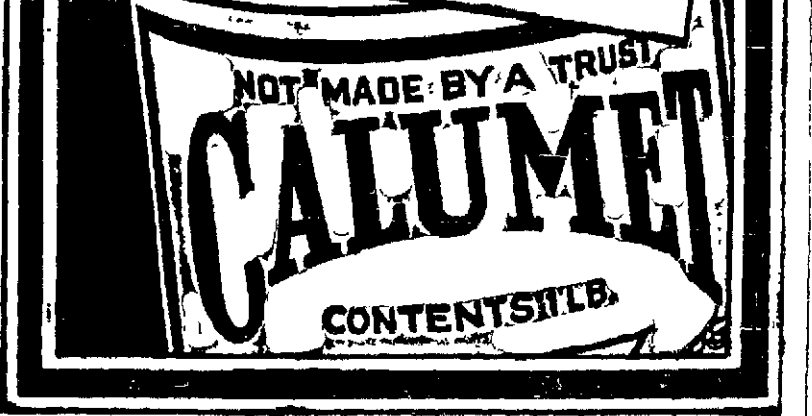

You may buy a baking powder for less than Calumet and think you are practicing economy. Don't be misled—the baking you spoil will make those that are successful exorbitant in cost.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

has successfully proven, during the past thirty years, that it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength. That's why bakings where it is employed never fail to raise properly.

Calumet is used by more housewives, leading chefs, domestic scientists, restaurants, hotels and railroads than any other brand. Millions buy it—you should try it.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

The Iron Food for Vitality

He Needs It—
"The Iron Food for Vitality"

The Vim-ful Dish

—a luscious breakfast fruit that makes whole days go better for men

Men need dash and vim in business—now in the blood. And here's a luscious dish that supplies it in abundance.

So delicious that they want it as their daily breakfast fruit, and so get the benefits that come with regularity of use.

Raisins, rich in food-iron, supply rare nutrition—1500 calories of energizing nutriment per pound.

Mere brains alone cannot long compete with those brains that are fortified by iron in the blood. "The Iron Men" are those who can work hard and stay well.

You need but a small bit of iron daily, yet that need is vital. And you, madam, largely select the food. So it is up to you to replace the energy that "he" burns up each day.

Men won't eat food regularly for nutrition only. It must have delicious flavor to entice them. See how stewed raisins do it, and then note the good they do.

SUN-MAID RAISINS

Use Sun-Maid Raisins made from California's finest table grapes—America's raisins, processed and packed immaculately in a great modern California plant.

Seeded (made removed); Seedless (grown without seeds); Clusters (on the stem). Also a fine, over-ripe dessert.

Raisins are cheaper by 20 per cent than formerly—see that you get plenty in your foods.

TEXTILE CLASS FOR SALESGIRLS BRINGS BENEFITS TO FRONT

That closer co-operation between sales force of Lima's big retail stores, the customer and the merchant exists, was evidenced at the textile class for salesgirls conducted by Miss Elizabeth Riddle in the chamber of commerce rooms, Thursday morning.

The classes, started a few weeks ago, are for the purpose of creating a better understanding between salesgirls and the customers, the merchants and their employees. A thorough course in the art of handling different types of customers; what methods are best suited and applicable to be used by the salesgirl in offering merchandise to a prospective buyer; the merchant's duties in creating a feeling of better co-operation between his sales force and his customers, are pertinent points in the course being given daily by Miss Riddle.

The work in Lima is under the direct auspices of the board of education. Miss Riddle is employed under the state and federal aid act created for public instruction. Merchants are in close co-operation with the merchant, alternately furnishing sample merchandise for the classes and time off for employees to attend the instruction each morning.

"The entire idea is to put the work of selling on a more professional basis," said Miss Riddle. "These classes are intended to bring a better understanding between the employee, the public and the merchant. The idea has caught on in lively fashion in Lima and several of the downtown stores are showing marked improvement in the efficiency of their clerks," she said.

Merchandise loaned by the several stores is used in class work each morning and actual progress of making a sale, from the entrance of the customer into the store until she leaves, is gone thru.

TWO FIRE ALARMS AT ALMOST SAME TIME

Two alarms of fire coming within a few minutes caused all the fire equipment in the city to be called out Wednesday night.

Report of fire from Vine-st and Greenlawn-ave was answered by fire companies on the south side. It was a false alarm.

At the same time, firemen from stations on the north side were investigating an alarm from the Firestone tire shop, 137 S. Elizabeth-st. A short circuited motor burned out, filling the place with smoke. Passerby believed the interior was afire. The motor was slightly damaged. The shop is owned by Newell and Norman O'Brien.

Rheumatism for Years

Left Him Helpless and Unable to Work—Cured

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of costly study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physical and made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Hunter's Drug Stores, Enterprise Drug Store, Thompson's 3 Drug Stores, Interurban Drug Stores, Public Drug Store have been appointed agent for Allentown in this vicinity with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles to all who state they received no benefit. —Adv.

THE NEW CITY COMMISSION

IN making a selection from the ten men who are candidates for the high office of city commissioner, The News allowed no bias nor prejudice, political or personal, to enter therein. But behind the selection was the very principle of the so-called Commission Form of Government itself.

The great allure for change in operating the municipality, an allure in which The News places little or no faith, is the argument that Commission form eliminates politics. It does not eliminate politics, as our good people will later learn, but increases politics; altho, it does eliminate partisan politics.

There will always be politics in any form of government; we had as much of it in the old 14-member non-political school board as we have had of it in our ward and council-at-large plan. Our new form will give us a board of three members and two cyphers, for it will soon be found that three of the five men will clique together and dominate.

But if we are to try out the plan, why not pick a new personnel as far as possible? Why should we take men directly out of the present council which has been legislated out of office for no other purpose than to try the new experiment?

It is for this significant fact that The News wishes the new Commission to be actually composed of new blood. In Harley, Crossley, Cunningham, Breckenridge and Rankin supporters of the New Idea will have a run for their money at least. If they desire otherwise, would it not be better to just select four of the present council and the ex-Mayor who is also seeking a commissionership, and let it go at that?

If anything is to be gained from the Commission Form, certainly it must come from new forces; otherwise why did not the old forces make the town the Dream City while they were in charge as Mayor and Council?

SUPPORTING THE SCHOOLS

VOTERS of Lima are being asked to cast their ballots affirmatively, on November 8, on the question of continuing an extra two mill levy for a period of five years and adding an extra mill for the Lima schools.

Heads of the educational system of this city have determined that such additional levy is necessary to provide funds to adequately care for the maintenance of the schools and properly educate and train the boys and girls of the city—the men and women of tomorrow.

The total tax duplicate in Lima at present is near $50,000,000. The school indebtedness here, aside from deficiency bond issues, is remarkably small—$549,700—in comparison with other cities, some of them even smaller than Lima.

Bond issues and extra levies for any purpose whatsoever have been given rather rough treatment by the voters during the last few years, particularly since the war plunged the world into a state of turmoil. But Lima has never failed or neglected to accord really needed aid for its school system, when called upon to do so.

There may be some persons in the city who have decided to vote against the extra millage levy, without inquiring as to the necessity of the added funds it would produce. They would, if they should investigate, find that the money is needed worse now than ever before if our schools are not to suffer.

Lima's schools have kept pace with the times. Its citizens have good and just reasons to be proud of the accomplishments and progress of our educational system. It would look like foolhardiness to deny support now that it is a necessity.

RAIN OR SHINE

WALLACE MORRIS, pride of the postoffice at Washington, D. C., has been a letter carrier since 1879. At 63, he daily climbs 2400 steps and walks 17 miles, carrying a 50-pound pouch of mail. How many of you other elderly men could do that? Few.

The oldest letter carrier in Lima is Will S. Simpson, who has been a letter carrier for the last 21 years, during which time he has walked 142,000 miles in discharge of his duties—nearly six times the distance around the earth.

FEW of us appreciate that bearer of joys and sorrows—the postman. Rain or shine, he is on the job. Without him, families would drift apart, friends would become forgotten when separated, and business would slow down to a snail's pace.

Next to the tramp of a returning victorious army or the slow and cautious thud of circus-parade elephants, there is no footstep as alluring as the postman's.

The whole world awaits his coming—eager lovers, anxious mothers, hopeful business men, worried venturers, cornered conspirators, despairing failures. For the postman tells your fate, better than gypsy palmists or ouija boards.

WISE old Ben Franklin in 1775 negotiated the transfer of the postoffice from private to government ownership.

It was not until 1840 that Sir Rowland Hill, Englishman, invented the postage stamp, adopted seven years later by the United States.

Free mail delivery and collections from letter boxes are commonplace, yet they originated within the memory of many now living. They were originated and put into operation in 1863 by Joseph William Briggs, then a window delivery clerk in the postoffice at Cleveland. A bronze memorial to him will be placed in the Cleveland postoffice by the Ohio Society of New York. Honor him as one of the unknown many who gave us our comforts.

Considerable progress has been made since Jan. 22, 1873, when America's first mail carrier left New York for Boston with a single letter, making the trip in the record time of two weeks.

To grasp that progress, also the intricacy of our form of civilization, remember that the American postoffice handles 18,000,000,000 letters a year. Hats off to the carriers!

EVELYN THAW

DESPITE the varying opinions that the general public as individuals may have formed concerning Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw, former chorus girl and wife of Harry K. Thaw, remembering the stormy career of the girl, now a woman, satisfaction is felt universally that her attempt at suicide failed.

Time was when Evelyn Nesbitt had no need of worrying over finances. That was the least of her troubles. Her career was a wild one, along the primrose path, as the sweetheart of a young millionaire. Later, as his wife, the orgy of pleasure became more pronounced. Then came the murder of a man whose attentions to Thaw's pretty wife were too open.

Thaw's battle for his life, for escape from imprisonment, his flight from Matteawan asylum and his exciting existence for many years is history. His wife succeeded in keeping herself in the limelight, via the stage and the movie screen. But the world wearied of old excitement. It craves something new. Evelyn was forgotten.

Reduced financially, she opened a tea room, as a means of livelihood. Patronage was slack. The bills began to come in. There was nothing with which to pay. Evelyn was discouraged. She swallowed poison. The stomach pump saved her. If her heroics does not result in former friends coming to her aid, she will probably try it again—maybe with better success the next time.

"The wages of sin is death." The world moves on. It has little time or thought for Harry K. Thaw or Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw now.

NECTAR OR EXPLOSIVE?

YOU AND I : COMMENT ON TOPICS OF INTEREST TO ALL

WOLF

Most farmers, and even crafty old hunters, believe that a wise old wolf will not eat a poisoned bait. This notion is knocked in the head by the government's Biological Survey. It kills four wolves, with poisoned baits, on a ranch near Nelson, Arizona.

This leaves just one animal too cunning to be caught by poisoned bait—the carcass, or "Injun Devil." It follows a trapper and springs his traps by touching them with a stick held between its teeth. Is that intelligence? Decidedly.

COMPLAINTS CONCERNING WALKS

The Lima News welcomes letters from readers for publication. They should be brief and to the point. They must be signed by the writer to insure good faith, but names will not be used if the authors so desire. This newspaper, by publication of these letters, does not necessarily concur with the authors in their views and the letters do not express the paper's opinion.

WOLF

Last spring the council ordered the city service director to proceed and order in walks in the city wherever needed. Several miles of walks have been put in and about town, but no effort has been made by the city to improve walks in the business section, altho some of them are almost impassable in bad weather.

A brick walk on W. North-st between the K. of C. Hall and the Buckeye Pipe Line, should have been among the number ordered replaced by the service director.

On the opposite side of the street, an old stone walk extending west from the alley to the Cadillac agency is just as bad. In rainy weather the water stands in large pools on this walk.

Surely persons owning as valuable lots as front on these walks, could easily build a good walk.

ROAD COMPLAINT

Editor, The Lima News: Where have our county commissioners been all summer? One ride over the Wapakoneta road from the termination of Wood-lawn-ave, will convince most any person that something is wrong.

Pieces of crushed stone is lying along side the road to repair it. A crew of a dozen men, a couple of plows and a steam roller would put it in fine shape.

How it up, throw the stone on it and pack it down with a roller. That's the system. This stretch of road to the Spencerville pike will be almost impassable this winter.

MAYOR TACTICS OPPOSED

Editor, The Lima News: With the coming of cold weather, when the wind is biting the bare hands and feet of the unemployed and their children, and when hunger is gnawing at their stomachs, wouldn't it be a good plan for Mayor Frank A. Burkhardt to drop his funny little performances calculated purposely to get in the limelight of publicity, and find some means to relieve the suffering of the city?

Mayor Burkhardt always finds a way to get money to fight utilities and to carry out pet projects. Better throw down foolish, little grand-stand plays and get down to brass tacks to make Lima a brighter, happier place in which to live, for her large army of unemployed.

HEALTH TALKS

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well
—OVERWORK—

Most people who believe themselves in ill health because they are "overworked" are really simply the victims of bad air, poor diet, poor sleep or worry. They attribute the lack of normal good health to work which to them has become too great a burden simply because they have not continued to observe the few rules of health, or never learned to observe them at all.

It is a common fallacy for men who break down in middle age to believe themselves a victim of overwork. The college girl who believes her health has been ruined by too much study. They prove their case, to themselves at least, when their health improves when given a vacation.

The truth of the matter is that they merely need to give their bodies the rest, food, air and exercise that they demand. It is true too, that they undoubtedly tax the capacity for work beyond the powers of the body, but their work, capacity is only a fraction of what it would be if they took exercise were not contemplated, did not as too much, or ceased to worry continually.

Of course, there are many cases of true overwork. But if one will use a little observation, he will notice that the men who are the most efficient, who get the most work done, those whom others regard as "live wires" are most careful about their daily health habits.

There are a number of simple rules easily remembered that are recommended by the Life Extension Institute. They are:

- Ventilate every room you occupy.
- Wear light, loose and porous clothes.
- Seek out-of-door occupations and recreations.
- Sleep out, if you can.
- Breathe deeply.
- Eat sparingly of meats and eggs.
- Eat some hard, some bulky, some raw foods.
- Eat slowly.
- Drink sufficient water.
- Stand, sit and walk erect.
- Do not allow poisons and infections to enter the body.
- Keep the teeth, gums and tongue clear.
- Work, play, rest and sleep in moderation.

I'm mighty glad I ain't been awarded yet in the way I look at things," remarked Abe Martin, "day, speakin' o' things in general. A body can't keep from talkin' too long in 'watch th' faces o' some auditors instead o' lookin' over their heads."

POEMS YOU WILL ENJOY

—By Burton Bradley—

THE PRIMAL GLAMOR

There is a little lake I know,
A lake of azure, cool and clear,
Where slim canoes slip to and fro
With rippling music, sweet to hear;
At night the silver moonlight gleams
On wavelets tinkling over sand,
It is a spot of drowsy dreams,
But somehow, blown across the land,
From far, far off, there comes a me
The great green magic of the sea.
Mountains with peaks of dazzling white
That rear themselves against the sky
Walk in my heart a brave delight;
Forests of pine trees towering high
Sur me with wonder and with awe,
The great green magic of the sea!
(Copyright, 1921)

And desert stretches hold a thrill
Of color, barbarous and raw;
But there's a spell beyond them all,
A lure of peace and mystery!
The great green magic of the sea!
The sea, the cruel, tender sea,
Eternal, yet forever strange,
Restless and turbulent and free,
With mighty moods that shift and change
From rage to calm, from love to hate;
The sea, that surges round the world,
Calling to high emprise and great
When long waves rout and tides are swelled,
Oh, glamor that man may not flee—
The great green magic of the sea!

"THE SHEIK" ALMOST PERISHED IN MANUSCRIPT

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)
The film version of "The Sheik" will be released in November and it will probably prove to be as great a financial success as E. M. Hull's novel from which it was adapted.

And all of that is more or less of accident! The manuscript of the book was rejected by a reader of a publishing house.

Later the script fell into the hands of the general manager of the concern. He saw possibilities for popular favor and published the novel.

The cognoscenti condemned the book as fit for lowbrows only. Evidently the country is overrun with lowbrows—more than 200,000 copies of the book have been sold. The publishers are thousands of copies behind in their press run.

However, those who expect to find a screen story in keeping with the novel are doomed to disappointment. No board of censors would pass a film that would closely follow such a story.

ATMOSPHERE OF "THE SHEIK"
No better idea of the nature of the story of "The Sheik" can be gained than by reading these phrases in advertising matters on the film.

"A flaming romance of desert love, flinging away the trappings of civilization, leaving the 'lady' only a woman, the 'gentleman' only a man!"

"The tale of a lawless Arab chief who loved an English beauty—and took her!"

"A romance all colored with barbaric splendor?"

"That's the word I was cudgeling my brain for—barbaric!"

The Regent Theater Is Closed

ACTING on advice from the Battle Creek, Mich., headquarters of the Butterfield Enterprises, under whose management the Regent is operated, that theatre closed its doors on Wednesday.

"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse"

THE intelligent manner in which Rex Ingram has grasped and projected the story of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" has made that well known Ibanes novel a masterpiece of cinema entertainment.

To be able to present this unusual story in its entirety, the Metro Corporation expended much time and an immense amount of money, but those who have seen the pictures are loud in their enthusiastic praise of the beauty and the scope of the plot and the wonderful acting of each and every member of the cast.

The action opens in Argentina, then moves to Paris and lastly to the battle fields. Mass and detail are blended perfectly and the four horsemen of the revelation, symbolic of War, Death, Pestilence and Starvation, are brought to view just often enough to thrill.

Superb photography is another of the picture's attributes. Probably the best acting is that of Rudolph Valentino, the personable grandson, Alito Alice Terry, Nigel de Bruiler and Virginia Warwick are right there. The picture ends in a mood of resignation well presented by scenes in an army cemetery in France.

Without doubt, "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" is the greatest masterpiece that has come our way for many a moon. It is, in itself, the acme of screen entertainment. Presented at the beautiful Sigma theatre, with a special orchestra and exquisite vocal selections by Miss Faith Black, the general effect is beautiful beyond words.

Sets for all performances are reserved. Two showings daily, matinee and evening.

CENSORSHIP JOKE
We Americans are "all bet up" over the matter of censorship, but the most ardent proponent of opponent will enjoy this bit of censorship assuaging in Australia.

A Stubborn Cough
Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Satisfying and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness, phlegm, looseness, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the most stubborn coughs.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction, money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

He found himself again in the dock. Something was said—Barry could not hear what. Then two words, nervously spoken, beat upon his ears.

"Not guilty."

"That's all right, then," said a smiling warder. "But get out by the side door, sir. There's a terrible crowd in the square."

Without a word Ewart Barry followed the man. Not guilty! He was free. But his process? That was gone. And Margaret? Gone, too! He had nothing left. The singing in the square had given place to shouts and yells and cheers. Barry was suddenly consumed with passion. Curse them! What was there to cheer about?

Then, coming towards him along the narrow street he saw a horde of people running. They laid violent hands upon him. "Let me go!" he shouted. "Let me go!"

But they would not let him go. Shoulder high they carried him into the market square, shouting, yelling, singing, cheering. They carried him to the bandstand in the center of the square and deposited him there.

"Speech! speech!" screamed the crowd.

"I have nothing to say. Let me go."

"Speech! Speech!"

And then before Barry's gaze the crowd seemed to fade away, and he saw one figure only, the figure of a girl hurrying past the court house with her head averted from him. She despised him! She, who had wrought his undoing!

A madness took Ewart Barry in its grip, a madness that swept away reason and judgment, that crushed his better self out of him.

A man leapt on the platform beside him—Oscar Kohn, with blazing eyes and gesticulating arms, a man possessed of that magnetism that subjugates crowds.

"We have had a victory to-day!" he shouted. "Ewart Barry is free! Ewart Barry has fought his own fight to-day, and he has won. I call upon him to help us in our fight. He who is not for us is against us. Ewart Barry, will you help us? Will you?"

The madness surged in Barry's veins. He raised an arm that trembled, a flat clenched until the knuckles shone white.

"Yes!"

His voice rang loudly over the square. Again and again the cheering ran out. It was in Ewart Barry's ears like the clamor from the pit.

When, hours later, Ewart Barry met Bob Grainger, he felt that he had drunk of the draught of degradation. He had allowed Oscar Kohn to exploit him to his fullest and now he had entered into obligations which were anathema to him. Bob Grainger, beetle browsed and heavy of aspect, addressed him. "I'm glad to hear ye got off," he said. "I thought ye would."

"Thanks, Bob." Ewart's tone was listless.

"But I'm sorry to see ye makin' a muckie fool o' yerself. What's come over ye, man, carryin' on wi' that foreign devil and his friends?"

"I couldn't help myself, Bob. In any case," Barry's wrath came back to him. "Why shouldn't I? Why shouldn't I fight Delmar's with any weapon that comes to hand?"

"Fight your gran'mother!" snorted Grainger. "How can you fight a man who won't fight you? Delmar has shut up shop. I don't blame him. But it's kind o' hard on some of us."

"For you, Bob?"

"I'm not complaining. Maist o' us are well able to look after ourselves. But there's some as can't. An' I've heard tell o' one who's got no cause to think well o' you."

"Who is that?"

"Miss Kelso."

Barry's face hardened.

"Please explain yourself," he replied. "Two—False Witnesses Thurs."

"She's got the sack because she said that she'd given you the particulars of that New Dye Company's process."

"Given it to me! But man," cried Barry, wildly, "she gave it to—"

"Oh, haud yer tongue! I've heard that lie also." Bob Grainger's voice rose in anger. "I tell you that girl's as honest as the day, and there's naebody ought to know that better'n yourself. I'm fair ashamed o' ye, Mr. Barry. I am that."

Ewart darted from him. He arrived breathless at the door of Margaret Kelso's lodgings. "Is Miss Kelso in?" he demanded of the woman who answered his knock.

"Miss Kelso has left here, sir. This afternoon."

"Where has she gone?"

"To London, I think, sir, but I am not sure. A boy has just come for her box."

"Can't you tell me where to find her?"

"That I can't, sir. She didn't leave no address."

Reluctantly Barry turned his footsteps from the familiar door and went in search of Bob Grainger. He found Grainger at home. "I've been looking for Miss Kelso," began Barry abruptly. "She has left her lodgings. I am told she has left Bradley altogether, and gone to London."

"To London?"

"Yes. How am I to find her? I must find her."

"Mebbe they know at the mill where she's gone to."

"The mill is closed."

"But ye can surely go and ask Mr. Felton or Mr. Delmar. They're pretty sure to be at home this night."

Barry hesitated. Grainger went on. "I know that William Delmar is a just and honest man. Ye'd be as well to get him on your side."

"On my side!" exclaimed Barry. "Surely you've forgotten what has happened to-day."

"I've forgotten nothing. William Delmar was as fair as could be to you the day. He might ha' been yer own witness. Whoever is at the bottom o' this business, it's no' William Delmar."

"Then it's Richard Delmar."

"We'll mention no names," said Grainger, smoothly. "Now, be off and see if Mr. Felton or Mr. Delmar can put ye on the track o' Miss Kelso. I—I wish ye luck, lad."

Barry seized Grainger's hand. "I'll go, Bob," he said.

The housekeeper who opened the door said that Mr. Felton was at home and showed Barry into a sitting room.

In a few moments she had returned.

"Mr. Felton can't see you," she said, and stood by the open door.

Barry reddened, and brushing past the woman, found his way into the street.

The Delmar's house was some three miles out of Bradley. Ewart Barry set off on foot, and gradually the ranking caused by Mr. Felton's refusal to see him ceased to trouble him.

The house was an austere residence standing in its own grounds. The front door with its heavy brass knocker was opened by a maid-servant, and Barry was shown into a library.

The door opened and Barry turned swiftly. It was not William Delmar who came into the room but his daughter.

Alice Delmar was about thirty and the mistress of his house. She had pale, regular features, good to look upon, yet with more than a suggestion of her father's sternness. Her gaze was disconcertingly calm and direct. When she spoke her voice was deep and in absolute composure.

"I did not know anybody was here," she said from the door. "Are you waiting for father? I expect he is dressing. He will not be long."

Then she came towards Barry. "Why, you are Mr. Barry?" she said, without smiling.

"Yes."

Alice Delmar held out her hand. "I congratulate you most sincerely on your acquittal to-day," she said. "My father is greatly relieved. It is good of you to call. He will be glad to see you."

"I don't know that he will be glad," Barry said, awkwardly.

"You think my father is against you," she said. "Well, he isn't. He has had a great deal to worry him lately."

"I was in the court to-day," went on the other. "It was a very absurd prosecution, I think."

"Then why was it made?" demanded Barry.

"We don't know. The Insurance company insisted upon it. Father did all he could to stop it."

"Here is father," she added. "Good-bye."

She did not wait for his reply, but disappeared. William Delmar in a dinner jacket came into the room.

"Hullo, Barry!" he cried. "Glad to see you here to-night. Sit down."

"I came to ask you if you could let me have the address of Miss Kelso, lately in your employment," said Barry, stiffly.

"I've got it in my office—some-where off Market street," replied Delmar.

"She has left Bradley. I wondered if you could tell me where she has gone?"

"Left Bradley, has she?"

"I am told that she was dismissed on the ground of having communicated to me the details of the New Dye company's process," Barry said, harshly. "I don't know if it is worth while telling you so, but that is a lie." William Delmar's piercing eyes were upon him.

"Who told you that?" he demanded.

"It seems to be the gossip of the mill. Bob Grainger told me."

"Gossip as usual," said William Delmar. "Is very wide of the truth. I instructed Mr. Felton to inform Miss Kelso of the imminent lock-out and to give her the option of resigning at once in order to have time to look out for something else. She exercised that option and received a week's salary."

Barry's jaw hardened.

"Very well," he cried. "All I can say is that I believe the gossip as you call it before I believe you."

William Delmar turned to the door and held it open.

Speechless with passion Barry left the house.

At the dinner table Alice Delmar asked her father more questions about Ewart Barry than he was able to answer.

INGROWN NAIL

Toe Nail Turns Out Itself if You Toughen Skin

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it cannot penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic, manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

YANKEE BOB MEUSEL SAYS JUDGE LANDIS CAN 'TAKE A JUMP IN THE LAKE' FOR ALL THAT HE CARES

CHICAGO—Bob Meusel of the Yanks, who did a bad boy act with Babe Ruth and Bill Piercy, teammates, after the world series, seems to be in need of a spanking.

Bob, with Bill in tow, rode into town from the east Tuesday and departed for Kansas City last night, but while here Bob let it be known that he isn't bothering his head about what Judge Landis, baseball commissioner, may decide in the case of the players who took part in exhibition games after the recent clash of the Giants and Yankees.

Meusel, it will be remembered, was a member of the team Babe Ruth organized after the series and took on a barnstorming jaunt thru the sticks. Piercy, who is a young hurler, also was with the troupe. The journey lasted only about a week, after which Bambino began to believe baseball's rules were bigger than any individual connected with the game, so ordered the party disbanded.

When Meusel was discovered in the loop yesterday afternoon he was asked whether he had come here for the express purpose of telling Judge Landis he (Meusel) was sorry he had violated the rule which prohibits series contenders from picking up a little extra change in exhibition games.

It took Bob a few moments to figure out just who Judge Landis might happen to be. Then when it dawned on him that he had heard the name before he said that so far as he was concerned the judge could take a jump in the lake. Piercy said nothing, evidently satisfied he already had done enough to draw some unsought attention from the commissioner.

So far Judge Landis has made no statement on the case. He hasn't even discussed it with newspaper men, although has been quoted. He only admits having the matter under consideration. Man think that in view of the fact Ruth said the error of his way and called off the tongue Landis may be lenient with him. Meusel, however, may get himself into a pickle if he continues to make light of the commissioner's powers.

BOWLING RESULTS

The Wednesday night schedule of the Lima News Individual Championship Bowling Tournament resulted in Selbert winning three out of four games from Reese and Thedick taking three out of five from Neely. Dutch Walsh showed one game the best of Walter Dyke in their five starts. Walsh also scored the long end of the count over Bliss. Hardesty and Foster tied for close games with Hardy the best.

Wapak Fight Is Postponed Until November 16th

The fight slated to be staged at Wapakoneta by the Meusel team November 9, has been postponed until Wednesday night, November 16. This announcement was made Wednesday night by Clyde Haman, Wapak promoter, after receiving definite word from "Happy" McHenry, of Montpelier, Ind., that he could fight a week later.

Three weeks ago McHenry advised Haman that he could not fight in Wapakoneta November 9, on account of his southern tour. Monday Haman got a wire from the Hoosier at Hominy, Oklahoma, saying he is starting back north and would arrive by Saturday, November 12.

Haman got busy on the wires and booked McHenry for the 16th.

ANOTHER HOOSIER

He will fight Louie Lavell, of Anderson, Ind. Young Webb Dayton, was first selected as his opponent but the Wapak promoter cancelled his contracts.

Last winter McHenry fought several bouts in Wapakoneta and was their idol in fistie circles. One of his opponents was Walter O'Keefe, whom he held to a 10-round draw. Lavell has a good record. He put Tommy Teague to sleep in eight rounds and has a decision over Frankie Nessler.

WAPAK MAY UPSET PLANS FOR SUNDAY GAME

BOSS OF REDS NOW ATTEMPTING NEW MONEY SCHEME

BY BILL BARLOW

Last Sunday afternoon the greatest baseball game in the history of the sport, so far as this section of the state is concerned, was to have been played between Lima and Wapak. It was to have been the fifth and deciding game of a five way series for the championship of Allen and Auglaize-cos, the backers of both the Lima and Wapak teams being determined to win the honor and reached out far and wide for brawn and baseball intelligence in the way of major league ball players who were to be used by the combatting teams to down one another.

The result was that this city for several hours was the gathering place of 14 major league stars, part of whom would have played on each of the teams contesting the inter-county championship honors.

The followers of baseball for miles had anticipated the game as a real treat, both from the standpoint of seeing the game's greatest players in action and also witnessing the deciding game of the five way series which after four hard fought games was standing even up between the two clubs.

But instead of the two great teams playing the championship game, the weather man ruled that no decision would be given that day. Hundreds of fans took the weatherman's decision with a feeling of much regret, caused somewhat by learning that the game had only been postponed and would be played next Sunday with each team playing the exact line-up that would have played had not the downpour of rain interfered.

TAKING THE JOY OUT OF LIFE

So Lima fandom and fans from the surrounding territory set back and wished for a better break in the elements on the coming Sunday and as we look and see a clear sky less than 72 hours away from next Sunday afternoon, the old feeling came back that we want to see that game played more than ever and then the news is slipped to us that the chance of seeing the big game played is fading away.

It makes a fellow feel like wanting to fight or change his interest in baseball to football—or some like movement, which takes us back to the announcement of our story in which we say that it don't matter if one

LANGHORSE AND HOUTZ UNDER COVER?

We have been able to find out the local side of the argument but have not been detective enough to get on the trail of Oscar Langhorst or Louty Houtz, who are conducting the Wapak team's affairs.

It is stated at baseball headquarters that the five game series had been arranged between Lima and Wapak some several weeks ago, the terms or division of the gate were stipulated by Wapak in each game played and agreed to by the home management.

DICTATING TO MANAGER HALLORAN

Now the Wapak managers claim the next Sunday's game to be a different arrangement and have for the fourth time dictated to the Lima management as to what conditions the game must be played on.

The writer knows what the conditions are and was a witness to the agreements between the Lima and Wapak managers. Everything had been conceded to the visitors in order that the deciding game would go thru without a hitch. We know the agreements to be fair and just as originally entered into by the two

BOTH TEAMS STAND TO LOSE MONEY

It is true that both teams lost considerable money last Sunday but that, say the local managers, is a part of the game. The same thing may happen next Sunday and if so Lima can be good losers and Wapak must do the same or lose the regard that it has held among ball fans for many years.

So as the situation stands, on principle and fairness, the Lima team has been fair and even with a record crowd in attendance next Sunday should the game be played the home team will stand to lose its proportion of the cost of staging the biggest game ever played in these parts. The visitors, no doubt, will

Made Millions In Horse Racing-But Never Bets

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Could you practically live on a race track and never bet a single cent? Could you develop and sell race horses and never bet a cent to back them up?

Could you race a race horse and still never bet on him?

It is not impossible. John E. Madden, the most famous and leading breeder and racer of thoroughbred race horses on the American continent does all of this, and still more.

He has a farm at Lexington, Ky., 2000 acres of the finest blue grass land. He has other large interests.

John E. Madden, Famous Trotting Man, And Two Of His Horses: Right, Sir Martin, Left, Hamburg, Famous Sire.

Madden has a lot of sentiment for his horses. He heard that Nancy Hansen, a famous race horse, was for sale. He immediately bought her and gave her a home on the blue grass of his farm and the day she arrived Madden issued invitations to numerous friends for a reception in honor of Nancy Hansen.

Madden has established a cemetery on his farm for horses that have belonged to him. It is arranged within a stone wall built in the form of a horseshoe.

Within the enclosure are monuments to Nancy Hansen, Hamburg and other whose deeds have added lustre to the annals of the turf.

Madden always sells a horse when his party is over. He loves the fleet animals, but selling horses that he has developed is his business. He does not like to see them leave him, but as he has always said, "I had rather sell and regret than keep and regret."

He retains his interest in every line of sport, and no event of unusual interest in sports has been missed by him in 40 years.

But still he will not bet on a race horse.

Movies Of Dempsey-Carpentier Fight Can Be Shown In Ohio

COLUMBUS — Ohio is ready to see the Jack Dempsey-Carpentier prize-fight pictures, made at Jersey City on July 4.

Conrad of Mrs. Evelyn Francis Snow, chief of the State Motion-Picture Censors, followed today hard upon the formal bringing into the state of the films. They were transported by Frank Flournoy, of New York, representing Tex Rickard, the fight promoter.

Flournoy pleaded guilty before Federal Judge John E. Sater and was fined $1,000 for violating the United States law forbidding the transportation of the films. Judge Sater said he was following the custom of other states.

The lack of fuss about the incident today recalled the refusal of the former board to permit the showing of the Dempsey-Willard fight pictures, and the attempt made in 1919 to stop the fight bout between the two giants of the arena in Toledo. It is likely that the pictures will be exhibited first in Cleveland and Cincinnati.

UP MOVE ALREADY UNDER WAY

Will Embrace Wide Range of Securities, He Says

(BY B. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK — (Special.) — A young clerk, who has since become a millionaire, adopted this plan for saving money; I give it in his own words:

"I started each New Year by fixing the sum I would save during the year. I set the amount fairly high, so that saving it would mean that I must live carefully and economically. One year, for example, I decided to buy a $1,000 bond. I paid down $100 in cash, borrowed the balance from the bank, and repaid $75 every month. That $75 was the very first thing I paid on receiving my salary. What was left had to last me the whole month. When December came I did this was and is James B. Morgan, head of a leading bank in Chicago and universally recognized as one of the ablest bankers in America.

This is recorded here because the present is an ideal time for investing in bonds and for adopting Mr. Morgan's plan.

Why? Because, in addition to every other reason, all indications are that good bonds purchased now will increase substantially in market value.

Rarely has there been a time when investment bonds could be so confidently recommended from the point of view of prospective advances in quotations. The upward movement, as a matter of fact, is already under way. But it promises to go a good deal farther and to embrace a wide range of securities. So far, the most notable improvement has been in Liberty bonds and in suchlike obligations. But railway bonds and high grade industrial issues should participate substantially from now on.

Life more, is being piled up in the country at a rate and to a height which cannot possibly continue much longer. The reserve ratio carried by the Federal Reserve Bank is above the 30 per cent. After allowing the 35 per cent which the law requires to be carried against deposits, the Reserve now carried against notes in circulation is not less than 96 per cent. There is absolutely no need for hoarding funds to this extent.

When the artificial boom—which the bankers helped to cause—burst last year, the banks immediately began to apply the screws to borrowers, and ever since then their main concern has been to pull in their horns. This process is still going on in this country. But the more serious bankers have got over their little stringency and are getting into a more relaxed state of mind.

They are cheerfully and wisely as if money were plentiful and are in fact doing so. They are extending interest automatically and are offering other, more liberal terms to borrowers. They are making loans to be earned, not to be paid. They are not so concerned about anyone's part, but are more concerned about the success of the borrower. They are not so concerned about the borrower's credit, but are more concerned about the borrower's ability to pay. They are not so concerned about the borrower's income, but are more concerned about the borrower's assets. They are not so concerned about the borrower's reputation, but are more concerned about the borrower's future.

Real rates for money have declined materially from last year's high. The 100-day Treasury bill is now at 4 1/2 per cent, the 180-day at 4 1/4 per cent, the 270-day at 4 1/2 per cent, the 360-day at 4 1/2 per cent, the 540-day at 4 1/2 per cent, the 720-day at 4 1/2 per PREMIER CRAIG TO ATTEND PARLEY

Will Take Part in Irish Peace Conference

LONDON — (By Associated Press) — Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, has accepted the government's invitation, dispatched yesterday, to come to London and consult it as to Ulster's attitude toward the proposals regarding the Ulster boundary and other questions involved in the Irish settlement.

Sir James, it is stated, is coming to London to discuss specific plans submitted to the government by the Sinn Fein, of such a character that the government thinks them feasible if Ulster agrees to them. These plans do not, however, embody an agreement definitely reached between the

QUICK ACTION A SURPRISE TO HER

"I was very much surprised by the quick action of Deeco in my case," said Mrs. Mary Dolan of 213 East Main Street, Piqua, Ohio.

"My whole system was rundown. I had but little strength and seemed the days were endless. Constipation annoyed me daily and I had to take some kind of medicine every few days. My liver was sluggish and I had terrible backaches which came from my kidneys. I'm sure I've taken one bottle of Deeco and already I see a wonderful change. It seems my rest at night refreshes me now for I get up of mornings with energy to do my daily duties and I don't feel tired out of night. My bowels act regularly, the backache is relieved and my liver has been purged. I think Deeco a grand medicine and expect to take several more bottles before I stop."—Adv.

TO REDUCE DANGEROUS VARICOSE VEINS

People who have swollen veins or bunches should not wait until they reach the bursting point, which means much suffering and loss of time, but should at once secure from any reliable druggist a two-ounce original bottle of Moen's Emerald Oil (full strength).

By using this powerful, yet harmless, germicide treatment, improvement is noticed in a few days and by its regular use swollen veins will return to their normal size, and sufferers will cease to worry. Moen's Emerald Oil treatment is used by physicians and in hospitals and is guaranteed to accomplish results or money returned.

It reduces all kinds of enlarged glands, gotters and wens and is used exclusively in many large factories as an unfailing first aid to the injured athlete. Generous sample on receipt of 15 cents, silver or stamps. International Laboratories, Rochester, N. Y. Your druggist or Hunter's 3 Drug Stores, Thompson's 3 Drug Stores, suburban Drug Store, Public Drug Store can supply you.—Adv.

TO REDUCE DANGEROUS VARICOSE VEINS

People who have swollen veins or bunches should not wait until they reach the bursting point, which means much suffering and loss of time, but should at once secure from any reliable druggist a two-ounce original bottle of Moen's Emerald Oil (full strength).

By using this powerful, yet harmless, germicide treatment, improvement is noticed in a few days and by its regular use swollen veins will return to their normal size, and sufferers will cease to worry. Moen's Emerald Oil treatment is used by physicians and in hospitals and is guaranteed to accomplish results or money returned.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Say, young fellow, the 20 miles between Lima and Ottawa can be made in record time, provided you have the right kind of fuel in the old tank," declared Jim Morton, secretary of the Lima Merchants association Thursday.

"I was over at Ottawa last night and missed the last car home. A friend residing in that place graciously offered to bring me back; however driving to his home for 'fuel.' Oh, boy, 'twas some return trip—and some fuel," said Morton.

J. A. Karbach, traveling auditor for The Ohio Realty company, Lima, was presented with a bottle filled with new wine. He slipped it into his flask pocket and ran to catch a car.

The running stirred the wine. He had just boarded the car when the pressure in the flask blew out the cork. Bang!

Joe had time to get off the car before it gained momentum.

F. W. Laughlin, traveling representative of the Marcus-Troup company, Toledo, who "makes" the offices at the Allen-co court house in the interest of his firm, was walking home one night, he told friends here and wishing to light a cigar, found he had only two matches in his pocket.

He dropped one. Then he lighted the other to locate the one he had lost. He found that it was lying in a pool of water. The wind extinguished the lighter he was holding.

William Zint, former Wapakoneta business man and a devotee of raising chickens and propagating bees, found swarms of bumblebees in two hives where he expected to find honey bees.

"This is supposed to be a sign of something," Zint says. "It is a sign that I won't get so much money as I had expected."

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do this without the dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without straining, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

Where Quality Counts

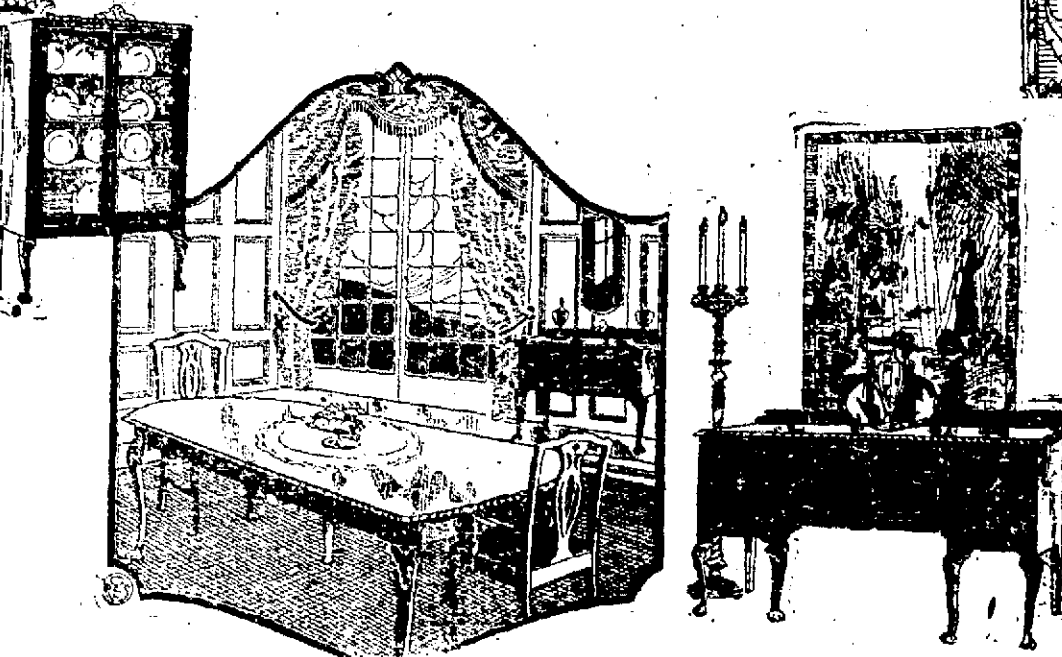

In nothing is quality more important than in furniture. Furniture serves a double purpose in your home—it is the background of your charming hospitality but it must also stand the test of every day wear.

In every-day wear—that's where quality counts. When buying furniture, its original cost must be divided by years of service and on such a basis much furniture, cheaper in original cost, is expensive at any price.

We sell only reputable furniture that we know will stand the test of time and come up smiling after the hardest wear—it is, such furniture that your home needs. We would like to show you the difference between the furniture we carry and the 'just pretty good kind.'

May we show you why good furniture costs less than the other kind?
